David West

1. As we sail up - on the sea of life and skies a - round are gray.
2. Those who sail with - out a guid - ing light will per - ish in the way.
3. Who will sail with burn - ing lan - tern bright in search of those as - tray?

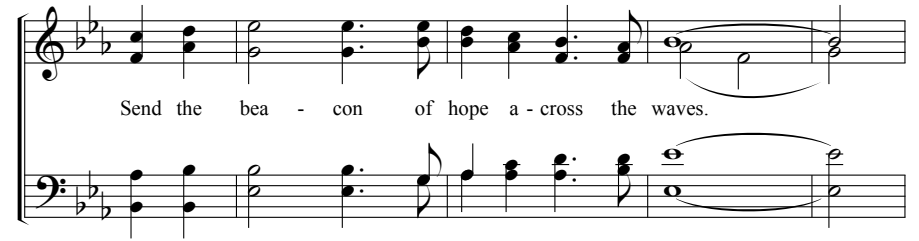

Heav - y bur - dens seem to weigh us down, our fears cause us to sway.
As they wan - der in the dread of night, all hope is swept a - way.
Call - ing through the bleak and end - less night to res - cue from dis - may.

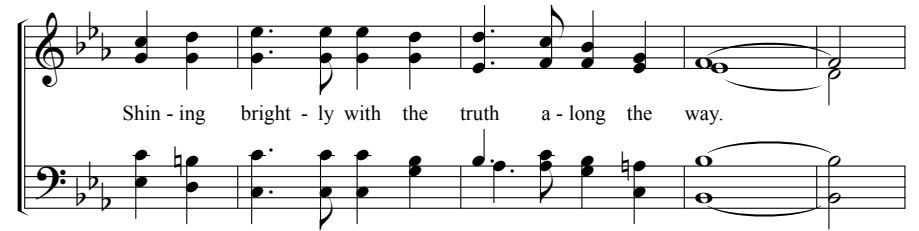

But on dis - tant shore shines a guid - ing light to help us on our way.
But on dis - tant shore shines a guid - ing light to help them on their way.
But on dis - tant shore shines a guid - ing light to help us on our way.

'Tis a bea - con of our Sav - ior's love that all man - kind be saved.
'Tis a bea - con of our Sav - ior's love that all man - kind be saved.
'Tis a bea - con of our Sav - ior's love that all man - kind be saved.

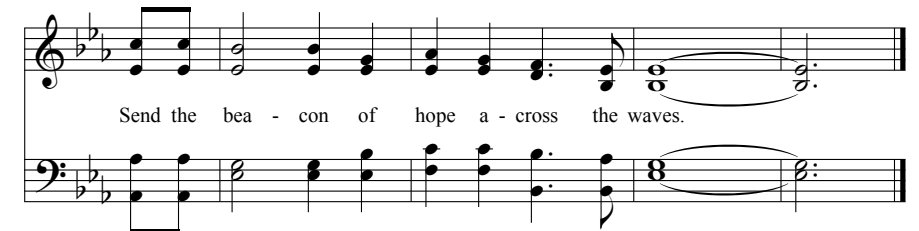

Send the bea - con of hope a - cross the waves.

Shin - ing bright - ly with the truth a - long the way.

Souls are toss - ing through a storm - y gale in search of hav - en's rest.

Send the bea - con of hope a - cross the waves.
